ROCHESTER TO BE STRONG OPPONENT

Hamilton Expects Hard Struggle on Saturday—Rochester Has Beaten Strong Teams.

DEFEATS COLGATE 7-0

Rochester's victory over Colgate last week by the score of 21 to 14, has changed the outlook for Saturday's game considerably. Previous dope pointed to an easy victory for the Buff and Blue, but the merciless drubbing which our team received at the hands of Williams, the large number of men on the disabled list, and the evident strengthening of the Rochester team, leads to a serious conjecture as to whether Hamilton will be able to finish the season with the blaze of glory that has been predicted.

Optimists try to explain away the victory of Rochester by explaining that the Colgate lineup consisted only of second-string men. A comparison of the lineups of the various games shows but little substitution of men of lesser ability, and the use of the Maroon stars when defeat seemed evident. Colgate might not have tried hard to defeat Rochester by a large score, but no team or coach will lay down before a smaller college when that college has crossed the goal line for three touchdowns.

Alumni of Williams College felt that Hamilton had a good chance to defeat their team Saturday. Williams allowed Hamilton one score on the one play of many which spelled success in previous games. The real reason is that Hamilton is lacking in defensive play. This year the Buff and Blue has in Clark one of the best offensive players that it has had in years, but his work cannot bolster up the team on the defensive. N. Y. U. had the ball only twelve minutes in the whole game but scored as many touchdowns as Hamilton in the remaining forty-eight. Amherst tore through our line without meeting serious resistance.

The Yellow will line up with a team that has met teams which rank in the fore of the football world, and have brought the team through without serious injury to the more valuable players. Cornell, Colgate, St. Lawrence, and Lehigh have been included in their schedule with the result of seasoning the Rochester eleven. The Yellow backs are exceptionally fast. A combination of Wallace and Cahill in passing resulted in two of the goals made Saturday. Harris, with a practically empty field, sprinted unchecked for eighty-five yards to a touchdown.

Fowler will be back on the Hill this week on crutches. Lawler's leg is improving, but is not the first class condition necessary to play a fast and strenuous game. The result of Sat-

SOCCER TEAM LOSES HARD FOUGHT GAMES

Superior Playing of Strong and More Experienced Teams Causes Defeat of Hamilton.

Hamilton's second intercollegiate soccer game was lost to the fast Syracuse team by a score of 8 to 0 last Wednesday afternoon on Hamilton's field. The field was in fair condition and a fair-sized crowd was in attendance.

Poor playing, especially of the back field, was the cause of the defeat. Hamilton was outplayed in every department of the game. The best playing for Hamilton was done by Nichols and Brownell.

Syracuse was much superior in kicking, shooting the ball from all angles of the field and placing it in any position desired. Excellent team work also contributed its share in rolling up the big score. Worden, Chien, Derby, and Bertenshaw starred for Syracuse.

The line-up:

HAMILTON 0.	SYRACUSE 8,
Nichols, ol.	Chien, ol.
Moore, el.	Ignacio, el.
Bartlett, c.	Worden, c.
Hallock, er.	Patridge, er.
Brownell, or.	Codug, or.
Forshay, lh.	Wertz, lh.
Heffron, ch.	Ignacio, ch.
Marlow, rh.	Wellington, rh.
Palmer, rf.	Bertenshaw, rf.
Reeder, goal.	Spanberg, goal.

The Sherrill Game

Hamilton lost the soccer game with Sherrill Saturday by a score of five to one. The game was played under excellent weather conditions but with a small crowd in attendance.

Sherrill was very good in all departments of the game and kept the ball in their possession most of the time. This was due more to better teamwork than to individual superiority. Sherrill made many more attempts at goal than Hamilton, many of which failed. The center forward and the outer ends played the best game for the visitors.

Hamilton was able to work the ball down the field only intermittently and seemed to lack the final punch when the opportunity came to score. The individual work of the team was much better than the teamwork. Several new men appeared for Hamilton, who showed up very well. Captain Bartlett played well for Hamilton and made our only score.

The soccer season has been very successful considering that this is the first year. The Clark Mills, Syracuse, and Sherrill teams are all well known and are among the best teams in the State. The season will close on Saturday. Hamilton will play its second game with Colgate immediately after the Rochester football game.

The line-up of the Sherrill game:

WILLIAMS ELEVEN TROUNCES HAMILTON BY SCORE OF 81-7

Superior Aerial Attack, Combined with Boynton's Stellar Playing Proves to be Outdoing of Hamilton's Light and Crippled Team.

To say that Hamilton received her second defeat of the season at the hands of Williams last Saturday is putting it lightly. "Bennie" Boynton, Williams' star quarterback, circled the Buff and Blue ends time and again for a touchdown, and Boynton's passing completely baffled his opponents. In the game last year the Hamilton ends succeeded in getting through and tackling Boynton several times, but this year the Purple backs kept every opponent out of the way and left him a clear field.

Aerial Attack Fails

Hamilton's aerial attack, which in the early part of the season was rather successful, did not work well against Williams, except in a few instances, when Campbell and Reeder made good gains on completed forward passes.

Hamilton's defensive work was good. When the Williams men tried to make gains through the line they were not at all successful, but the Buff and Blue seemed totally unable to break up end runs and forwards. On the offensive, Campbell's team was able to make substantial gains through the line, until within a few yards of the Williams goal. At one time the Buff and Blue players carried the ball from their own five-yard line down to the opposite five-yard line, where Williams held for two plays, and then intercepted a forward.

Boynton Stars

Boynton starred for Williams and Mallon and Richmond also played excellent football. Campbell did some fine passing, and got away for several long runs. May and Clark fought hard as usual, and Reeder succeeded in gathering in three passes, one of which resulted in Hamilton's only score.

The line-up and summary:

Our Team

Our team started the season with a snap which indicated that this season would be the most successful in years. However, after winning the first three games in worthy fashion the team was humbled at the hands of Amherst and then by Williams. These games are past. We have two more games with two teams which will prove worthy opponents. WE MUST WIN THOSE GAMES. It will be a hard fight with some of the best regulars on the injured list, but the whole college must be there to support those men who will fight on the gridiron for the Buff and Blue. The college body can do much towards winning those games by giving the team their most enthusiastic support. Go out on the field during practice and encourage the team. Be at every cheering practice and every man have his vocal chords in good condition on the next two Saturdays.

Our Spirit

The Hamilton spirit was again in evidence Saturday night when a group of loyal students went down to Clinton to meet the football team returning from the Williams game. The spirit and enthusiasm of the group would have made quite an ovation for a winning team, but to welcome a beaten team in such a fashion shows even plainer the spirit of our College. It shows that the undergraduates are behind the team, win or lose. That same group of students, however, are going down to Schenectady with the team and are going to happily bring a winning team back from the Unionized village of electricity.

HARRIERS MEET IN DOUBT

Due to delay on the part of the Rochester managership, the final arrangements for the dual Cross Country meet between Rochester and Hamilton have not been made but will probably be concluded during the week. No advance dope is to be had on the Rochester team except that three of the men who defeated Hamilton's harriers last year are on the team again, and will be foremost in attempting to duplicate their victory of last year. The race will be run over the same course as in the R. P. I. meet and will be started so as to finish between the halves. This will be the final meet of the season.

COLLEGE PICTURE TAKEN

The college picture was taken Thursday morning, November 4, immediately after chapel. These pictures will be on sale at the college store as soon as they can be developed and a sufficient number printed.

Spice o' Life

Jim: "Say, Bill, your watch must have been slow last night."
Bill: "Why's that?"
Jim: "I heard you say to your girl 'just one' and it was two-thirty then."

Coughlin: "Don't you know this is a private office? How much did you pay the office boy to let you in."
Daniels: "I got in free,sir. It says 'no admission' on the door."

Teddy: "Have you stopped smoking?"
Zip: "Yep; I've sworn off."
Teddy: "Why?"
Zip: "It's getting to be so darned effeminate."

Supe: "Well, Pritchard, what's the matter?"
Pritchard: "I'm sick."
Supe: "What's the matter, brain fever?"
Pritchard: "No; stomach ache."
Supe: "H'm! You must have been eating in Commons."

Chapel Preacher: "You go into a shop and buy a cigar, and in its wake you get wine, whisky, brandy, —"
Voice from front seat: "Quick! Where do you get those cigars?"

Burns: "I shall marry a girl who is my exact antithesis."
Burke: "You have plenty of chances for there are lots of intelligent girls about."

PARTS FOR NEW PLAYS

The decision of the committee on Charlatan play tryouts is as follows:

In the play "A Night in an Inn" these were successful: Toffy, Barry, '21; Albert, May, '21; Sniggers, Clark, '21; Bill, Langtry, '23.

In the play "Suppressed Desires" these were successful: Steve, Griffith, '21; Mabel, Baer, '24; Henriette, Doyle, '21.

Announcement concering the play "The Last Man In" will be made later.

MEMBER OF HONOR COURT

William G. Brian of New York City has been chosen from the Freshman Class as a member of the Honor Court. He was decided upon as the representative of the Freshman Class at a meeting of the members of the other other classes which comprise the court.

—Booth Kennedy, '20, formerly assistant paymaster for the Mohawk Valley Steam Cotton Co., of Utica, has accepted a position with D. D. Winston & Co., wholesale grocers.

—William H. Smith, '99, of Buffalo, N. Y., who for many years after his graduation from college was engaged in newspaper work, has entered another business. He has been editor of the Watertown Standard, the Glens Falls Times, and has been prominently connected with the Associated Press, as well as other news-gathering organizations.

ADVANCE ON ROCHESTER

urday's game will depend largely on whether the gaps left vacant by these men are satisfactorily filled.

HAMILTONIAN PLANS

If the 1922 Hamiltonian differs in no other way from the year-books of previous years, there will be one important respect in which it will be unlike the book of any other class. The annual will appear without fail before Sub-Freshman Day. A clause in the contract which Manager Martin has signed with the Baker, Jones, Hausauer Co., Inc., of Buffalo, insures the fact that the book will appear at the stipulated time.

The job of taking the individual pictures was given to Nix of Utica, and during the last week most of the Juniors have bravely submitted themselves to the ordeal of being photographed. The group pictures will be taken in the near future. The Hamiltonian Board requests that the men take somewhat more care in the matter of dress for group pictures than has been the custom in former years.

FREE!

For the next eight weeks, any student may cut out the FATIMA advertisement appearing in this paper and leave it at 21 South, with his name and address written on it. After each appearance of the advertisement one name will be drawn from all those turned in.

The person whose name appears on the advertisement so drawn will receive a carton of FATIMA CIGARETTES with the compliments of the Liggett & Meyers Tobacco Co.

START NOW WITH THIS ONE

The winner of the carton of Fatimas advertised to be given away on October 23rd was William A. Wettel, '21.

A fact:

All through last season at the Polo Grounds, New York, the Giant's home field, the "fans" in the grandstand as well as the bleachers, bought more Fatimas than any other cigarette.

In one way, at least, smoking is just like eating

THE more rich and delicious a certain food is, the more care people take to avoid eating too much of it —for instance, plum pudding or "sweets."

Similarly, many smokers avoid straight Turkish cigarettes because they are too rich. They contain too much Turkish.

But in turning to part-Turkish or Turkish Blend cigarettes, men often find a disappointing lack of taste, due to too little Turkish.

So naturally, men look for a cigarette containing just enough Turkish. And sooner or later, they "discover" Fatima.

They find that while Fatima contains less Turkish than do straight Turkish cigarettes, it contains more than any other Turkish Blend—in other words "just enough Turkish" to give them that delicious Turkish taste without any over-richness.

Try smoking "just enough Turkish."

NEW ADMINISTRATIVE RULES PASSED BY FACULTY

Administrative Rule 3 (a) on page 6 has been revised to read as follows:

A student who has the full allowance of absence and exceeds it incurs a deliquency in attendance; and for each ten absences beyond the first excess absence, an additional delinquency in attendance is incurred. In the reckoning of absence, one excess absence is offset by two unused absences in other exercises. Until the removal of his delinquency in attendance, a student has only the minimum allowance which consists of ten absences in the term distributed at his option but subject to the rule concerning zeros in scholarship record. He may remove a delinquency in attendance by not exceeding his minimum allowance in a subsequent term, and in no other way. If he exceeds his minimum allowance by more than five absences, he incurs an additional delinquency in attendance; and for each ten adsences beyond this point, a further additional delinquency is incurred.

No student is allowed to remain in college who at any time has as many as four delinquencies in attendance.

For the period of introduction of the above:

The rule regarding the incurring of a delinquency for each additional ten absences shall not be retroactive, but shall go into effect immediately from this date. Any student who has now incurred a third delinquency in attendance will be dismissed from college, should his delinquencies later amount to five.

When a student incurs a second delinquency of attendance, notice to that effect shall be sent to his parent or guardian together with a statement of the above rules. A further notice shall be sent if a third delinquency is incurred.

FINALS OF TOURNAMENT

The final match of the fall tennis tournament between Coupe, '21, and Thompson, '23, will be played in the early part of this week. The postponement of this match was due to poor weather and the condition of the courts, but at the first possible chance the contenders for the championship will meet for the deciding match.

Thompson, who has shown decided ability as a player, will be unable to make the team next spring because of his position on the track team. Much promising material has been found in the Freshman Class.

THOMAS, '24, INJURED IN HALLOWE'EN PARADE

Is in Faxton Hospital With Broken Leg—Wild Autoist Plows Into Students.

The return of the parade to College Hill on Hallowe'en was marred by an unfortunate and peculiar accident. As the men were walking along the road west of the Oriskany Creek, a Ford delivery car came slowly down the Hill. Although the car had but one light on, the undergraduates saw it and moved to the right side of the road. As it approached the crowd, the car suddenly gathered speed and headed directly for the men, although it had to turn aside to do so. The first ranks of the parade had time to jump out of the way, but those who were in the rear did not know there was a car near, until they were hit by it. A mad scramble, only partially successful, ensued. The majority were flung aside with glancing blows, until the Ford came to Thomas, Roemer, Sutters, and Burroughs, all Freshmen, who were walking together. Sutters caromed off into the ditch, Burroughs fell on the road, Roemer, the first to be hit directly, clung to the radiator of the machine until the force of its striking Thomas threw him to one side. The mud-guard gashed his left leg as he fell. Thomas became caught in the whel, and was dragged along for a considerable distance, gashing his right leg severely besides breaking it in four places below the knee.

Thomas and Roemer were taken to Dr. Dudley of Clinton in the Ford that did the damage. After being temporarily treated, Thomas was sent to Faxton Hospital in Utica for immediate attention. He is now resting as comfortably as might be expected. The leg will be saved and, by studying while he is laid up, he intends to go on with his class. Roemer was able to return to the Hill with the rest and will soon be all right again.

The driver of the car is a travelling salesman of Utica. After driving through the crowd, his car stopped a little way beyond. When the undergraduates reached it, he was gone, though he later reappeared on the running-board as the machine started for the village with the wounded.

It was clear that the driver, upon reaching the parade, steered into it, increasing his speed to about 30 miles an hour, intentionally or otherwise. Walter Kernan, a well-known Utica attorney, is investigating the matter in behalf of the young men.

MAY LOSES FATHER

G. E. May, '21, was called home on Saturday night by the death of his father, who was a prominent Brooklyn attorney. Mr. May died very suddenly from heart failure. The sympathy of the College is extended to May.

COLGATE SOCCER TEAM PLAYS ON HILL SATURDAY

With a defeat by Syracuse and one at the hands of Colgate the motto for the soccer team has become "Get Colgate." The next game with Colgate is to be played this Saturday on the soccer field. Colgate defeated us in the first game 2-0. They did this by means of a mass formation. Since then our team has been practicing both for open and closed plays. Colgate's line-up will probably be the same as it was when we played them the first time. Our team will use the same men with the exception that Reeder will be in goal in place of Willard. The line-up will probably be as follows:

HAMILTON.	COLGATE.
Nichols, ol.	DeLessio, ol.
Moore, il.	McCormick, il.

Hallock, C., ir.	Gamble, ir.

HISTORY CLUB FORMED

A History Club was organized November 1, at the home of Dr. Bonham, with the following men as charter members: Pitkin, Bland, Bartlett, Ballot, Comrie, Pritchard, Hamilton, Perry, George, Brown, Mathewson, Morgan, Edie, Fisk, Wynkoop, Coupe, Hopkins, Reid, Seaver, Ramsburg, Alfange, Dowling. Pritchard was unanimously elected president on the first ballot. Mathewson was elected vice-president, and Ballot, secretary-treasurer. The program committee is composed of Ballot (chairman), Wynkoop, Brown. The Life of Alexander Hamilton is to be the topic for discussion at the next meeting, which will be held at the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity House, it being decide to meet at the various houses in turn. There will be a trip to Indian Mound Sunday, November 14, for all the members. Any man who qualifies and cares to join may be added to the roll by the officers and committee. The method of proceedure will be submitted and voted upon at the next meeting.

ANNUAL STUNTS OF HALLOWE'EN

Held Last Monday Night in Orderly Fashion—Games Held in Gymnasium.

PROFESSORS CALLED ON

This year the College inaugurated a new feature in its Hallowe'en celebration. Instead of the annual march on Clinton, so destructive in former years, the two under classes paraded to the village and returned after a rather brief visit.

Fully 180 strong, some attired in freakish costumes, others with noise producing instruments, the parade left the Gym at about eight o'clock. After trips to all the fraternities and dorms on the Hill to get everyone in line, the crowd marched four abreast to the village, to the tunes of Hamilton songs and yells.

State Police Speak

At the Square, a large circle was formed and the Freshman Class officers made speeches. Yells were given for Clinton, the State Police, and the village constable. One of the State Troopers made a few remarks in reply, and the parade started on the return trip, thinking of the cider and doughnuts awaiting it.

On the way back stops were made at the homes of members of the Faculty. "Russo," "The Department," and "Bull" Durham all made "addresses" of welcome as they were eagerly called for. "Cal" appealed for more Soccer candidates, while "Marsh" was glad of the change in the method of celebrating, and talked a little politics. Although "Coach" was not in, Mrs. "Coach" passed out apples and was lustily cheered. "Bibs" was among the missing also.

Just above the Oriskany Creek bridge occurred the accident which marred the evening. Such was the depression caused that no one else was visited, although it was found afterward that Mrs. "Bugs" had generously baked 300 cookies for the crowd.

Class Matches in Gym

At the Gym the two lower classes grappled in the contests of the evening. Although the Sophomores carried off the honors in pie eating and blindfold boxing, the Slimers won decisively in the undressing and barrel-boxing. Other contests were tilting, apple-bobbing, and a real old pillow fight, which showered feathers over everyone. When all had had enough cider and doughnuts, furnished by the Freshmen, the crowd dispersed, at about 11:50.

RECEPTION FOR FRESHMEN

President and Mrs. Frederick C. Ferry gave a reception to the Class of 1924 Thursday evening, November 4. The Freshmen had a chance to get acquainted with the Faculty members, who were present to welcome the new men. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was spent.
